

Title	Sepsis Coordinator
Job Summary Overview:	The Sepsis Program Coordinator is a registered nurse who works in collaboration with the medical and hospital staff to provide multidisciplinary care to sepsis patients. The coordinator provides clinical, professional expertise for patients, families, and staff members. The coordinator will collect and analyze data surrounding the sepsis patient. Sepsis program involvement to include assistance of program development as it relates to care of all sepsis patients. The sepsis coordinator will research and drive implementation of evidence-based practice as related to sepsis care.
Qualification	Minimum Required Qualifications	Preferred Qualifications
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Graduate of an accredited school of nursing</li> <li>• Bachelor’s degree in nursing</li> <li>• Current license to practice in the state</li> <li>• 5 years minimum experience in nursing</li> <li>• 2 years leadership experience/program management</li> <li>• BLS</li> <li>• ACLS</li> <li>• Experience with caring for the sepsis patient population</li> <li>• Strong organizational and prioritization skills</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Master’s degree in nursing</li> <li>• Critical care or emergency medicine experience</li> <li>• Experience in similar quality improvement role</li> </ul>
Working Conditions, Material and Equipment Involved	Computers, clinical unit based equipment, telephone, medical equipment, and other equipment.
Essential Duties and Responsibilities
Clinical Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Advanced assessment skills</li> <li>• Evaluates patient outcomes</li> <li>• Facilitates evidence based practice across all disciplines in accordance with current sepsis guidelines</li> <li>• Acts as a resource for staff and providers in developing a plan of care</li> <li>• Maintains current knowledge and competency in the management of the septic patient and in professional practice (e.g. conferences/workshops, professional organizations, etc.)</li> </ul>
Leadership and Quality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Coordinates the sepsis program</li> <li>• Communicates effectively and works cooperatively with others using an integrated approach toward achieving optimal patient outcomes</li> <li>• Role models critical thinking by demonstrating active and proactive problem solving</li> <li>• Leads performance improvement processes recognizing trends, exploring alternatives and assisting</li> <li>• Develops and implements sepsis related policies and procedures reflecting current evidence</li> <li>• Interprets and presents data for key stakeholders</li> </ul>
Staff Development and Competency	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identifies learning needs of professional staff and patient education</li> <li>• Provides education in order to advance staff, patient, and their families’ knowledge</li> <li>• Collaborates in the development and implementation of the interdisciplinary education plan</li> <li>• Maintains staff competency with regulatory requirements</li> </ul>	